NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.—The NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains an Editorial address, not merely local in character, Literary, Reviewers and News from all parts of the country, Correspondence from Foreign and Domestic Letters, and Associated Press Telegraphic Dispatches; a Card and complete Summary of Political and Home News; Detailed Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Tasks about Farm, and other Household and Agricultural Subjects; also, a full page of General, Dry Goods, and Market Reports; which are published in THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. It frequently contains articles which the great press of advertisements will permit us to put in the daily Edition. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives, in the course of its year, THREE of FOUR of the BEST AND LATEST POPULAR NOVELS.

By Durley. The cost of these novels, if bought in book form, would be six to eight dollars. It is calculated that the cost would be three or four times that sum. Now, where we can so much exceed individual cost, we will offer them at a reduced rate, in THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Those who believe in the principles and approve of the character of THE TRIBUNE, can increase its power and influence by joining with the subscriber in forming clubs to subscribe for THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, and to insure to themselves the lowest price for it, while such a paper can be printed. Persons residing in the city can find no more valuable journal to send to their country friends.
